General Information

Limited Warranty

Products supplied by King Marine are warranted to be free from defects in material and workmanship at the time of shipment. King Marine's sole obligation is limited to the repair, replacement, or credit of products determined to be defective.

Except as stated above, no other warranties, express or implied, including warranties of merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose, are made.

Inspections & Claims

Customers should inspect shipments immediately upon receipt. Any shortages or shipping damage should be noted on the carrier's delivery receipt and reported promptly to both the carrier and King Marine. Concealed damage or shortages must be reported within the time limits established by the carrier.

Payment

Credit terms are available upon approved credit. Payment terms are established based on the customer's credit and account agreement.

Visa, MasterCard, American Express, and Discover are accepted. A processing fee may apply to credit card transactions.

Returns

Returns require prior authorization from King Marine and must be received in new, unused, resalable condition. All returns are subject to inspection.

Special-order, custom, discontinued, and non-stock items are not returnable unless approved by King Marine.

Pricing

King Marine strives to maintain stable pricing whenever possible. However, prices are subject to change due to changes in material costs, freight, tariffs, duties, supplier pricing, exchange rates, or other market conditions.

Unless otherwise agreed in writing, orders will be invoiced at the prices in effect on the date of shipment.

Terms of Sale

All sales are subject to King Marine, Inc.'s Standard Terms and Conditions of Sale. Acceptance of an order by King Marine does not constitute acceptance of any additional or conflicting terms contained in a customer's purchase order or other documents.

A copy of our Standard Terms and Conditions of Sale is available upon request.

Shipping

Shipments are F.O.B. King Marine's warehouse in Columbia, North Carolina. Customers are encouraged to provide their UPS or FedEx account number whenever possible.

Parcel shipments may be prepaid and added to the invoice upon request. LTL and truck freight shipments are generally billed directly by the carrier.

Most in-stock orders ship the same business day.

Our goal is to build long-term relationships by providing dependable inventory, consistent quality, competitive pricing, and responsive customer service.
